Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On Easter Monday, Pope Francis, 88, died after 12 years as Bishop of Rome. His public ministry and writings inspired and influenced me in my own faith journey.

I mourn his death because he was something unique to me among Christian leaders. He was humble and yet, he always said what he felt was right, regardless of whether it was popular or not. Thus, many saw him as a hero or a villain, or fluctuated in their opinion depending on the topic. One Cardinal compared him to a Rorschach test - an inkblot which everyone interprets differently.

Jesus is also a Rorschach test for us. Christians battle over Jesus’s teachings and often, faithful Christians see our Lord in very different ways, choosing different teachings to emphasize or ignore. Likewise, it has been said that in the “search for the historical Jesus,” the Jesus of history always resembles the scholar writing that history.

This is why I emphasize that the challenge of engaging scripture means seeking transformation, not confirmation. If the Old and New Testaments do not challenge us to reconsider our worldview, then we are not reading them correctly. Sometimes, scripture may tweak how we see the world. Sometimes it may lead us to overhaul our views. We must all be open to the Holy Spirit to be at work upon us through the text.

Francis wrote that the taunts of “save yourself” at the crucifixion, reflect a desire to prefer a God who works miracles, not a God who is compassionate. At times, we want our God to communicate power, show might and do away with those who may wish us harm. But Francis wrote that this is not the God we see in Jesus, but our own ego. He said rightly, “We want a God who looks like us, rather than us having to become like God.”

Remember, God loves you as you are, but God in Christ calls us to take up our cross and follow him. In Jesus, we see God. Faith in Christ challenges us to lay down our identity and turn from sin. It calls on us to be open to the Holy Spirit transforming us, so that we will love as Jesus has loved us - with compassion, service, and humility.

- Drew

More Like Her Than I Knew

Proverbs 31 paints the picture of a virtuous woman—strong, wise, diligent, and deeply loved by her family. For a long time, I didn't think my mom fit that mold. She didn't have a spotless house or a color-coded planner. But the older I get, the more I see it: maybe she was more like that woman than any of us realized. And maybe I'm more like her than I thought.

She had a way of making people feel at home. Her laugh was loud and unfiltered—the kind that made you laugh too, even if you didn't know what was funny. Her door was always open, whether the dishes were done or not. In her house, you didn't have to be perfect. You just had to be yourself.

And yes, she sewed. She was known to buy a bolt of fabric and use every last inch—there are plenty of photos of us four girls in matching homemade dresses. I wouldn't trade those for anything. That creativity, humor, and resourcefulness? That was her strength.

Proverbs 31:25 says, "She is clothed with strength and dignity, and she laughs without fear of the future." That verse makes me think of my mom every time. She wore strength like Wonder Woman's cape—bold, fearless, and ready for whatever life threw her way. Her dignity was quiet but unshakable. And her laugh? Unforgettable.

Her house may have been messy, but her heart was always in order. She didn't live to impress she lived to love. That's its own kind of holiness.

She may not have checked every box on the Proverbs 31 list, but she lived the spirit of it: welcoming, generous, joyful, and full of life. And now, as I raise my own (mostly grown) boys and find scraps of grace from one long bolt of love, I realize—I want to be more like her.

And I thank God for that.

TARTAN ORDERS

Although Heritage Sunday is not until September, now is the perfect time to place orders for items such as ties, sashes, and scarves, to wear during the service. It's also a great opportunity to order fabric for a flag made from your family's tartan. If you need assistance in locating your family's tartan, please reach out to Mary Conner at 704-300-1109 or the church office. To ensure that all materials arrive in time for Heritage Sunday, please submit your order by May 15th.

THE RAINBOW CONNECTION PRESCHOOL

I can't believe it's already May! This is our last month of Rainbow, and we will start a new school year in August. April was such a busy and fun time! Easter parties, egg hunts, plenty of sunshine, and exploring spring!

We are having our graduation ceremony in the sanctuary on May 20th for our graduating 4s and 5s classes. It is always bittersweet to say goodbye to another group of children I have watched grow over the years, but I am excited for their new adventures!

We are so blessed to be a part of the SPC community, and we are so thankful for all of the support we are given.

"Start children off on the way they should go,
and even when they are old they will not turn from it"
(Proverbs 22:6)

Thank you again for supporting the SPC Food Ministry.

May Mission Focus

During the month of May, the Mission and Ministry Committee is highlighting the Abuse Prevention Council – a local organization within Cleveland County that assists women and children who are victims of abuse.

Because all people have the right to live safely and with dignity, the APC provides professional, non-judgmental services for survivors of domestic and sexual violence. APC seeks to foster public compassion through a proactive community that empowers and supports all. The APC provides emergency services, shelter, legal and medical advocacy, counseling, and education. Through community support, these services are always free of charge for anyone who needs it.

The APC is currently in need of supplies to provide care and comfort for its shelter guests. During the month of May, Shelby Presbyterian will be collecting items to help stock the shelter with necessary goods. Items can be brought to church where there will be collection baskets in the narthex and outside of the office/Ellis Hall. Please see the list below for needed items:

- Sports bras – various sizes
- Women’s underwear – various sizes
- Women’s deodorant
- Women’s body wash
- Women’s shampoo and conditioner

Monetary donations are also appreciated and will be used to purchase items.

There are many ways that individuals can support the Abuse Prevention Council, and the women and children they serve. For more information, or any questions, please check out their website: <https://www.abusepreventioncouncil.org/>

SPC Reports & Minutes

SESSION MEETING MINUTES – March 18, 2025

RECEIVE NEW MEMBERS

Kyle & Raven Childers; Sponsors: John & Mystie Brotherton
Frank Newton; Sponsor: Mike Alexander

Alex & Meredith Rowe; Sponsors: Bruce & Michelle Moser
Wil Sarkos; Sponsor: Steve Sisk

Pastor Drew presented the prospective members and they each shared a little about themselves. Motion to accept all into membership was approved unanimously.

COMMUNICATIONS

Clerk – Tom Martin read a note from former pastor Fred Rose thanking SPC for our hospitality in providing a meeting space for officers of Good Shepherd Presbyterian.

Diaconate Report – Deacon Chair Michelle Moser—Craft Night is coming up this Sunday, Game Night was successful last month, and Wednesday Night Supper in April will feature a traditional Guatemalan national dish. Members of the Media Committee presented instructions on downloading and using the MinistryOne app at WNS last week. The deacons discussed ways to be active in neighborhood groups. Michelle encouraged elders to be in contact with deacon partners. Mary Conner noted the pew directory is too outdated to be useful. Michelle will have the deacons remove them.

Pastor – Drew Mangione—He is excited to see visitors continually coming to worship and members engaging with them.

ONLINE VOTES & MINUTES

Ratify Online Votes: N/A

Session Meeting February 18, 2025—approved unanimously.

COMMITTEES

Finance – Richard Dedmon – Update—Pledged offerings received are 41% of the budget for the period, but this is typical. Total expenses were also below budget for the period. Revenue from all sources exceeded expenses, so we're in good shape. Drew explained that former choir director George Cribb had created a sizable fund to be given to SPC upon his death. This gift must be used only to benefit traditional music programming at SPC and will be presented to the church at this funeral on March 29.

Property – Bill Jobe – The public adjuster completed a much better examination of the roof damage, and we expect his assessment in a couple of weeks. The sanctuary side of the church building has been insulated. Narthex parlor lighting has been switched to LED. Reminder that the resource room attic space must be cleared for insulation to be installed in the education wing. Courtyard sodding and brickwork repair has been completed. Wood shelving in the vault will be replaced with metal shelves spaced to accommodate archive boxes. More exterior security cameras are being installed. Hoping to repair main sanctuary doors where wood is deteriorating. The exterior of some windows needs recaulking. Recommendation to approve the purchase of two new round tables for Ellis Hall using undesignated Memorial funds. Question was raised about how much shipping might increase if we ordered three tables. After discussion, the motion to order three tables was approved unanimously.

Rainbow – Tom Martin – Update- Tom reported that the Rainbow Board approved increasing tuition by $10/month beginning fall 2025.

OLD BUSINESS – Drew—We and former John Knox members are going to submit a letter to presbytery requesting $40,000 to be used to improve the food storage environment in the Harrill house.

NEW BUSINESS – Drew—People are hanging around the church, and one man in particular has been disorderly and disrespectful to staff without provocation. Police have been called with no action taken. Discussion. Drew will seek counsel from some officers he knows. Mary Conner recalled that presbytery may have an environmental steward designation with available funds for churches trying to improve their energy efficiency. Drew will investigate.
