Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Even if you don't have followers on Instagram, you are an influencer.

I say this as one who cannot stand that "influencer" has become a job title. People now aspire to careers of posting content online, amassing followers, and then getting paid to endorse products. It's a strange world that we live in.

Yet, in social life - the real and interpersonal kind - everyone and everything we surround ourselves with has an influence on us. As human beings, we are naturally influenced by others and at the same time influence the people we are around, because of how much we tend to mimic one another.

In 1 Peter 3:15b, we read, "Always be prepared to give an answer," and this is often used to suggest we need to have all the answers. But if we look at the context of the verse, the answer we are to prepare is the hope we have in Christ by which we are able to be a good example in adversity, by "never repaying evil for evil."

As we look out into an increasingly polarized world, we have the opportunity to be a good example - for our peers, for those younger than us, and for those older than us, as well. This is an important part of what it means to be a Christian, as Jesus said to let our good works be seen so others will give glory to God.

We are blessed in this church to have a community that includes people of every age from newborn to 99, who are active in the life of the church. In truth, everyone from the teenager who keeps us up to date on the latest goings on in the culture, to the senior who can remind us of the lessons in our past, we all have a lot to learn from each other.

This is why with the annual stewardship letter last September, we suggested a daily five-minute prayer pledge for intergenerational ministries and relationships in our church. The more we interact with one another across generational divides, the more we can have a positive influence on each other and then be a positive influence as a faithful presence in our community.

Beloved, I hope that you will continue to participate in our intergenerational activities, from Wednesday Night Suppers and special church services to Game Nights and the Montreat Retreat, because we need each other. Please don't hesitate to be a part of any of these and reach across the boundary of years to get to know someone older or younger than you.

Never underestimate the influence you may have or what you might learn from someone else as you gather in community in the hope of our Lord Jesus Christ. - Drew

From the Desk of Carol Ann

Going barefoot can be a spiritual practice. Say What?

The arrival of May Day heralds many celebrations worldwide, but for the Lavery household it marks a sacred seasonal threshold: the day when the soles of their feet are once again allowed to kiss the earth directly. My Mom was a firm believer—shoes on till May 1st.

The practice of navigating the world without shoes taught lessons far beyond the simple joy of feeling the grass between one's toes or the challenge of dashing across hot pavement to the sanctuary of the green shade. It fostered an awareness of the living world, a constant mindfulness to tread lightly and with care, ensuring not to get stung by the bees among the clovers.

When God appeared to Moses in the burning bush, God told him to take off his shoes, for he was standing holy ground (Ex. 3:5). I'm sure it wasn't May 1st either. But when I think about this – isn't all ground holy? If so, shouldn't we take off our shoes regularly so we can be on holy ground? What is God trying to tell us when we are on standing on holy ground?

Our feet are beautiful—no matter what they look like. They are beautiful because they bear the weight of our entire body. They also bear the wear and tear of our comings and goings as we do good for others. They bear the good news of Christ to a world that needs Him. Go barefoot and thank God for your feet today and for the privilege of walking on earth, this holy ground!

THE RAINBOW CONNECTION PRESCHOOL

I can't believe it's already May! April was a very busy time, Easter parties, egg hunts, extra outside time, and exploring spring!

This is our last month of Rainbow until August, and a new school year! This month we will have our graduation ceremony on May 21st for our graduating 4s and 5s classes! I have watched these children grow into the big kids they are over the past few years, and I am thrilled to see them start a new chapter.

We are blessed to be a part of the SPC community, and we are beyond thankful for all of the support we are given.

"Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it"
(Proverbs 22:6)

FOOD MINISTRY UPDATE: I am so thankful for the privilege of seeing God at work in our SPC staff, members, volunteers, and guests when I participate in our Food Ministry.

No statistics this time, just stories:

After lunch was over, I was waiting outside the kitchen for my ride home. A man had ridden up on his bicycle and was talking with someone from SPC staff about something he wanted or needed. I wasn't sure what. She asked a lot of questions. He seemed to be a little intimidated. He finally admitted that he would like water with ice in it. While she went inside to get it, he told me that he likes to joke around with people and not be so serious. She came back with a cup of ice water and a smile. He also smiled, got on his bike, and said, "A cup of cold water!" I smiled too and remembered Matthew 10:42 which says, "Whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple—truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward." -Kathy Wilson

Music Notes

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! to all our musicians and chancel choir for the beautiful musical offerings during Holy Week and Easter. From our reflective offerings on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday to glorious hallelujahs on Easter Day, it was a meaningful journey that we shared together as a congregation. We also would like to thank our wonderful soundboard and camera volunteers. They went over and beyond during the Lent and Easter seasons to make sure we had everything we needed for sound for our online viewers and for those participating in person. They are very faithful to serve each week in our service.

Do you love to sing, but are not quite sure about joining the Chancel Choir?? This summer we will have several SUNDAYS ONLY choir opportunities. You can just show up on Sunday morning, rehearse an easy anthem and sing with the choir that Sunday. Come give it a try and see what singing in the choir is all about! We hope you will decide to join us in the fall. We will have some dates and times for you in the June newsletter.

It is a joy to serve our Lord with all of you at SPC. Thank you for all the ways you love and support our music ministry.

*The Baldwin upright piano is still available to anyone who would like to have it. The piano is free and will need to be picked up.

SPC Reports & Minutes

SESSION MINUTES MARCH 19, 2024

Order of the Day: Receiving new members: Drew recognized new members Ken and Pat Morgan; and Julia Perotti and Doug Whiteside. All had been through the new member classes, along with Matthew and Christie Martin, who were unable to attend. After brief conversations, a motion was made by Steve, seconded by Carolyn B, to accept Ken, Pat, Julia, and Doug as the newest members of SPC.

Communications

Clerk's Report - Larry opened the discussion regarding our Community Refrigerator. Rainbow Committee has received at least nine letters of complaint/concern regarding the location, and users, of the refrigerator. In addition, several concerns have been verbally related to Drew and others. Concerns range from loitering around the Harris St side of building between refrigerator and playground, to littering and inappropriate language around children, to personal safety concerns for staff members arriving to church. Ideas proposed include moving it to another location on property, waiting until 2:00 or later to replenish refrigerator, hiring someone to be a presence outside and around church during Rainbow, installing cameras. Relocating it will involve some expense to run power and upgrade doors/locks on Holland St doors.

Bill made a motion, seconded by Laura, to form an ad hoc committee to work on arriving at best option(s): Anna Schweppe, Elizabeth Schweppe, Tom, Bill, Drew, and Abby (or her designee).

Pastor's Report - Minutes of Session meeting of February 20, 2024 and the online vote to approve the funeral service for George Beattie on March 8, 2024 were unanimously approved on motion of Bill and second by Steve.

Finance Committee - Richard reported budgeted revenues were down for February, "old hands" on Finance Committee feel we are still in good shape. Changing about 100 (of 400) fluorescent bulbs to LED and new heat/air units in office has contributed to utilities being under budget.

Finance plans to seek additional quotes for our insurance coverage.

Mission and Ministry- Laura reported M & M interested in Hot Lunch Ministry look into spending some of its designated monies to enhance the groceries available for distribution each week. Larry reported those discussions already underway. Suggestion made to have Erin set up a credit card for such usage.

Property Committee - Bill reported the new heat/air units for youth rooms, Parlor, and Conference rooms are to be installed Thursday of this week. Elevator repair is to be done Wednesday of this week. Painting contract with CSM for $31,000 to paint sanctuary was approved pending proof of adequate insurance coverage by contractor. Palmetto Roofing has been approved to replace roofing over elevator and narthex. Bill plans to change outside lighting near Harris/Holland corner to be on from dusk to dawn.

Old Business - None

New Business - None

Action Items - Letter to Rainbow re refrigerator (Larry to draft; Drew to finalize)

--Finance Committee to propose source of funding for painting

Closing - Motion to adjourn by Bill, seconded by John, closed with prayer by Mystie.
